

DO THIS FIRST—YOU!

You know, and every physician knows, that when any sickness has passed, whether it be throat trouble, organic disturbances, contagious diseases, or even a severe cold, a relapse is feared, because sickness robs the system of Nature's resistance and leaves it subject to lingering germs. Drugs never build up a worn-out body—only food can do that, and the first thing to take after any sickness is the concentrated, blood-making oil food in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the tissues, benefits the blood and strengthens both lungs and throat. Physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion after sickness. Nurses everywhere advocate it. Scott's is pure medicinal food, without alcohol or drugs.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Pythian Sisters.
Furn Leaf Temple, No. 10, Pythian Sisters, will hold its regular meeting at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. Sisters from the Gratton and Salem temples and Grand Chief Mrs. George will be in attendance. Supper will be served to members and visitors at 6:30 p. m.—Advertisement.

First Recital.
Under the auspices of the Marcano Music Club the first artist recital of the season will be held at 8:15 o'clock this evening in the auditorium of the Masonic temple, at which time Mme. Chillon Ohman, a distinguished American soprano, accompanied by Mr. Arno Dietsch at the piano, will appear in concert and a farming program of numbers will be rendered with a purity of style most pleasing and refreshing, who sings herself immediately into the hearts of the audience.

Social Features.
FAIRMONT, Oct. 18.—In connection with the convention of the federated clubs of West Virginia to be held here this week, there will be several social events as entertainment features for the visiting club women. Altogether it will be a busy week for the social side of Fairmont, and there will be a round of activities for all concerned. An Tuesday evening a brilliant reception will take place at the Country club, this event to be given by the Woman's Club. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. George DeBolt will entertain at tea, and on Thursday evening the concert by Mlle. Dufau will take place. Luncheon will be served at the First Methodist Episcopal church social rooms Wednesday, and on Thursday at the high school building, there will be a luncheon given. The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist Episcopal church will serve on Wednesday and the girls of the domestic science department will serve at the high school Thursday. A reasonable price will be charged for the luncheons.

Eagle's Exhibit.
On October 23 at the Lumberport school, Eagle district will have an exhibit of farm products, fancy work, hand-craft work, etc. The teachers of each school are planning to attract and bring with them their pupils and patrons, and many exhibits of farm products. During the afternoon there will be short talks by W. D. Zinn, Carl S. Lawson and others; also a band concert will be given. The teachers and pupils invite the patrons and friends of the schools to attend and co-operate. This exhibit is not for the pupils alone. It is for the public in general. All are invited to attend and take any product they think good enough to show and help make an exhibit that will benefit all.

Parsonage Wedding.
A wedding was solemnized at the parsonage of Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, South, at 11 o'clock Monday morning. The contracting parties were Nelson R. Cain, of Adamston, and Miss Anna R. Harold, of Burnsville. Mr. Cain is the efficient bookkeeper for the Biddle Concrete Company. Miss Harold is a daughter of H. B. Harold, of Burnsville, and has been employed for some time as stenographer for the Richards Construction Company. This happy young couple will reside at Adamston.

McNurien-Francis.
The many friends of Miss Sylvia McNurien and Roscoe Francis were agreeably surprised Saturday evening when this charming young couple announced that they had been married that afternoon. The ceremony was performed in Miss McNurien's room in the Prunty build-

WOMAN WEAK, RUN-DOWN

Finds Health in Simple Tonic.
People in Clarksburg will begin to believe us when we say that our delicious Vinol is a wonderful tonic and strengthener. Here is another case where it has proved its wonderful power to overcome weak, run-down, nervous, anemic conditions. "I was run-down, nervous and could not do my work without being entirely exhausted, and would often faint without any apparent cause. The doctor said I was anemic but failed to help me. My husband brought home a bottle of Vinol and I began to improve after taking one bottle, and after taking four bottles it has built me up so I can do all my housework without help. I recommended Vinol to a neighbor, who says her doctor approves it and said 'Vinol is a wonderful good tonic.' Mrs. Bessie Herling, West Philadelphia, Pa. We recommend Vinol to our customers as the greatest strength creator we know—due to the extractive medicinal elements of fresh cod livers, without oil combined with peptonate of iron and beef peptonate, all dissolved in a pure medicinal wine. ing by the Rev. W. B. King, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church. Miss McNurien has been employed by the Carmichael Candy Company as stenographer and had a wide circle of friends. Mr. Francis is employed by the Koblegard Company and is quite a popular young man. Mr. and Mrs. Francis will reside in the Prunty building.

Swiger Family Reunion.
The first reunion of the Swiger family was held at the Hepzibah church Sunday. By actual count 394 persons were present. Fairmont, Mannington and Shinnston were represented by large numbers. It was decided to make the reunion an annual affair. The following were the officers elected:

Omar W. Swiger, of Wallace, president; William E. Swiger, of Shinnston, secretary and treasurer; Prof. Iar L. Swiger, of the Clarksburg schools, historian. The reunion proper started at 1 o'clock after a luncheon had been served in the grove that surrounds the church. The Hon. Charles G. Coffman, attorney of Clarksburg, and the Hon. W. J. S. Harmer, of Shinnston, delivered the principal addresses. A genealogical history of the family was given by Prof. Iar L. Swiger. A male quartet gave a number of selections during the afternoon.

Six children belong to the original Swiger family that settled in Virginia now West Virginia. All of the six children with the exception of Christopher Swiger, who resided in what is now Doddridge county, reared their families in Harrison county. The descendants of these six children represent all of the Swigers in the United States. The oldest representatives of each of the six original children, and who attended the reunion are as follows: John Swiger, probably the first of the family to come to America, was born in Germany, in 1764. He was represented by William E. Swiger, of Shinnston.

Jacob Swiger, the second child, was represented by Cleophus Swiger, of Sycamore, near Clarksburg.

Christopher, the third, was represented by Isabel Swiger, of Rinehart.

Elizabeth Swiger, the fourth child, was represented by Isabel Swiger, the oldest representative and the nearest relative of the original family.

John Webster Swiger, aged 92, the oldest living Swiger in this country represented Mary Swiger, the fifth child. John Webster Swiger has resided at Sardis, in Sardis district, all of his life. He is hale and hearty, despite his advanced years, and he was one of the most enthusiastic attending the reunion.

Eve Swiger, the sixth child, was represented by Mrs. Ellis Lyon, who Swiger married Barnes Allen, the forefather of the Allens in Harrison and Doddridge counties.

Prof. Iar L. Swiger will publish a history of the Swiger family some time next year. Already he has more than 2,000 names collected, and short biographical sketches of each one.

Among those who attended the reunion from Fairmont were Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Swiger and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John O. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Swiger and daughter, Gertrude.

A more complete account is promised for Sunday's Telegram.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA.
At Rules held in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Harrison County, on Monday, the 4th day of October, 1915, the following order was entered:

The Arctic Ice and Bottling Company, a corporation, vs. William Lovelock, Object of Suit.
The object of the above entitled action is for the recovery of money due from the said defendant to the plaintiff for goods sold and delivered by the plaintiff to said defendant, which money is due, owing and unpaid from the said defendant to the said plaintiff. And the further object of said action is to enforce the payment of the said debt by process of attachment against the real estate of the said defendant, William Lovelock.

And it appearing from an affidavit filed in said action that the William Lovelock is a non-resident of this State, it is ordered that he do appear within one month from the date of the first publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect his interests herein.

Given under my hand this 4th day of October, 1915.

J. PHILIP CLIFFORD, Clerk.

Counsel for Plaintiff.

COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE.

John J. Shore, who sues on behalf of himself and all other lien creditors of Ada L. Frush, plaintiff, vs. Ada L. Frush, plaintiff, in Chancery.

The above named parties and each of them will take notice that on WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 17th, 1915, at my office, 214 Court street, in the City of Clarksburg, Harrison County, West Virginia, I will proceed to execute the order of reference entered in the above styled cause on the 18th day of September, 1915, by the Circuit Court of Harrison County, wherein I, as Commissioner in Chancery, am directed to take, state and report an account showing:

First, all the real estate owned by the judgment debtor, Ada L. Frush, alias Addie L. Frush, where situate, its description and the quantity thereof.

Second, the liens upon said real estate, by whom held, their respective amounts and priorities.

Third, whether said real estate will in five years rent for sufficient sum to pay off and discharge said liens and the costs of this suit.

Fourth, and such other matters as any party in interest may require, the same being pertinent, or such other matter as said commissioner himself may deem pertinent whether so required or not. At which time and place you are required to attend with such evidence as will enable me to comply with said order of the court.

Given under my hand this 18th day of October, 1915.

W. M. CONAWAY, Commissioner in Chancery.

Counsel for plaintiff.

Notice to Lien Holders.

To all persons holding liens by judgment or otherwise, on the real estate, or any part thereof, of Ada L. Frush, alias Addie L. Frush.

In pursuance of a decree of the Circuit Court of Harrison County made in a cause therein pending, to subject the real estate of the said Ada L. Frush, alias Addie L. Frush, to the satisfaction of the liens thereon, you are hereby required to present all claims held by you against the said Ada L. Frush, alias Addie L. Frush, which are liens on her real estate, or any part of it, for adjudication to me, at my office in the City of Clarksburg, on or before the 17th day of November, 1915.

W. M. CONAWAY, Commissioner.
